Published by Authority.

From Saturday July 4, to Tuesday July 7, 1767.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 26th Day of June, 1767,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Names of many of the Officers serving in the respective Regiments and Battalions of Militia within the several Counties in England and Wales, have been frequently returned by the Judges in the List of Persons proper to be appointed Sheriffs, notwithstanding such Officers are by Law exempted from serving the Office of Sheriff during the Time of their Service in the Militia: And whereas the Impropriety of such Returns has proceeded from the Want of Information being given to the Judges of the Names of the several Officers serving in the Militia, from whence many Inconveniencies have arisen: His Majesty, in order to prevent the like happening for the future, is pleased, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby to Require and Command, that the respective Lieutenants of the several Counties in England and Wales, where the Militia has been raised and embodied, do cause Lists to be made every Year of the Names and Places of Residence of the Officers serving in the Militia within the respective Counties, and cause the said Lists to be delivered into the Hands of the Clerk of Assize, in order to be laid before the Judges at the Time of holding the Summer Assize, that Care may be taken for the Time to come not to insert the Names of any such Officers on the Roll of Persons to be proposed to His Majesty as proper to serve the Office of Sheriff.

Robert Walpole.

Dover, July 6.

At Eight o'Clock Yesterday Evening her Royal Highness the Princess and his Serene Highness the Hereditary Prince of Brunswick, with the Young Prince, arrived here. On their Arrival the Guns of the Castle and Fort were fired, as were those of the Ships in the Harbour. The Mayor and Corporation waited upon her Royal Highness in Form, and had the Honour of kissing her Highness's Hand. Their Royal and Serene Highnesses still remain here, the Wind blowing very hard.

Excise-Office, London, July 6, 1767.

The Commissioners of Excise do hereby give Notice, that Attendance will be given this Day, and for Thirty Days afterwards, (Sundays and Holidays excepted) at the Excise-Office in the Old Jewry, London, from Eight o'Clock in the Morning till Two in the Afternoon, for receiving such fresh Notices, Entries, and Duties, as are required by Act of Parliament passed in the 29th Year of the Reign of his late Majesty, for laying a Duty of Five Shillings upon every Hundred Ounces of Plate, which any Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, shall own, use, have, or keep, within the Limits of the said Chief Office of Excise. And the like Attendance will also be given at the several Offices of Excise in England, Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, for receiving the like Notices, Entries, and Duties from the several Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, not inhabiting or being situate within the Limits of the said Chief Office of Excise.

Custom-House, London, June 20, 1767.

Whereas on Wednesday the 13th Day of May last, between the Hours of Nine and Ten in the Evening, John Case, John Liddell, Thomas Harton, William Webber, and David Brown, all Officers of His Majesty's Customs, and belonging to the Fly Cutter, in the Service of the Revenue, being on Board a Boat belonging to the said Cutter, within the Limits of the Port of Portsmouth, and in the proper Execution and Discharge of their Duty, were hindered and obstructed by the Crew of a Barge, which they observed to put off from one of the Men of War then lying at Spithead; on Board of which Barge were several Casks, which the Officers suspected to have been then lately run, and which they attempted to seize, but in such Attempt were forcibly opposed and obstructed.

The Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, in order to bring the Offenders to Justice, do hereby promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds to any Person who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, any one or more of the said Offenders; to be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs upon Conviction.

And if any one of the said Offenders shall within Three Months from the Date hereof, discover his Accomplices, so that two of them at least be apprehended and convicted of the said Offence, the Offender making such Discovery, shall be entitled to the like Reward, and be discharged of such his Offence.

Edw. Stanley, Secretary.

BEAUME de VIE.

By His Majesty's Royal LETTERS PATENT, granted to the Patentees for the sole Making and Vending the same in Great Britain and the Colonies.

THE Virtues of this Medicine are manifest beyond Contradiction in all Disorders of the Stomach and Bowels; Gout, Gravel, Scurvy, Rheumatism, Agues, and all Intermittents. In Female Complaints it has never failed to relieve, and it is the greatest Restorative in the World for impaired and shattered Constitutions. Its high antiseptic Virtues render it specifically valuable as a Preservative against all Infectious Distempers; and as it is the most powerful Antiscorbutic, no Medicine extant deserves so much to be regarded for the Service of His Majesty's Navy. For a more ample Account of its Uses the Public is referred to a Pamphlet of Cases, to be had of the Venders of this Medicine, which (as well as the Marc or Residuum for external Use) is sold in Bottles at 3s. each by W. Nicoll, Bookseller, in St. Paul's Church-Yard, T. Becket in the Strand, T. Durham at Charing Cross, Richardson and Co. at the Royal Exchange, R. Davis in Piccadilly, and W. Flexney, Holborn.

Good Allowance to Country Dealers, Captains of Ships, and those disposed to give it away for charitable Uses. This Medicine may be had in all the Towns in England, Scotland, Ireland, and the Colonies.

CANADA BILLS.

THE Proprietors thereof, who have any Claims depending unliquidated, or who have not hitherto produced their Certificates of Liquidation, are desired to send an Account of the same to the Committee, at the New York Coffee-House, within one Month from this Time, otherwise they will lose the Benefit of the Dividend of the Bonus then to be made.

By His Majesty's Patent.

SANDERSON's Lunar and Calendar Watch-Keys, (from an elegant new Die) for showing the Day of the Month, and the Age of the Moon, are sold by John Mallett, (joint Patentee with the late Mr. Sanderfon) in Albion's New Buildings, Bartholomew Close. Their Majesties, and sundry of the Nobility, who have been furnished with those Keys, have expressed their Approbation of the Invention. Merchants, Captains of Ships, Watch-makers, and others, may be supplied with them either for Home-Sale or Exportation, with proper Allowance. N. B. Some neatly finished, with Characters adapted to the Turkey Trade.

THE Works of Mr. HOGARTH, in separate Prints or complete Sets, may be had, as usual, at his late Dwelling House, the Golden Head, in Leicester-Fields, and no where else. Commissions from Abroad will be carefully executed, and particular Care had to the Goodness of the Impressions. Where also may be had, in Quarto, The Analysis of Beauty, written by Mr. Hogarth.

Mrs. Hogarth is sorry she is compelled to inform those, who may hereafter become Purchasers of Mr. Hogarth's Prints, that they are liable to be imposed upon in the grossest Manner by a spurious Impression. As this is not only a cruel Invasion of her Property, but an Imposition upon the Publick, as well as a great Injury to the Reputation of her late Husband, she thinks it a Duty incumbent upon her to give this publick Notice.

N. B. Mr. Hogarth's Prints are, by an Act obtained the last Sessions of Parliament, secured to his Widow for the further Term of Twenty Years.

WHEREAS Mr. Charles De Liniere, late of Amsterdam, but now of Paris, did some Time in the Year 1762, cause to be deposited in the Custody of Peter Dollond, late of the Strand, but now of St. Paul's Church-Yard, Optician, Two Lifting Pumps of a peculiar Construction: And whereas the said Peter Dollond hath been at great Expence about the said Pumps, which, notwithstanding divers Applications, the said Mr. De Liniere has totally declined repaying. Now therefore this is to give Notice to the said Mr. De Liniere, and to all whom it may concern, that unless the several Demands of the said Peter Dollond relating to the said Pumps are fully discharged on or before the 1st Day of August next, the said Pumps will be peremptorily sold according to Law.

ALL such Creditors of Edward Tregaskiss, late of Truro in the County of Cornwall, Shopkeeper, who have not already made Oath to their respective Debts, and who intend to take rateably and proportionably what his Estate and Effects will pay, and in Consequence thereof to give him a full Discharge, agreeable to an Indenture, dated the 10th of June, 1765, whereby the Estate and Effects of the said Edward Tregaskiss were assigned to Lewis Portbury, Esq; and John Weymouth, Merchant, as Trustees for his Creditors, are desired to send Affidavits or Affirmations, ascertaining the Amount of their several Debts, to the said John Weymouth, of the City of Exeter, Merchant, within Two Months from the Date hereof, or they will be excluded the Benefit of the Dividend, which will be made by the said John Weymouth on the 1st Day of October next, between the Hours of Two and Five in the Afternoon, at the Globe Tavern in Exeter.

Notice is hereby given, that the Meeting of the Creditors of Richard Densham, Samuel Madder, and George Grenfell, of the City of Exeter, Merchants, Brewers, and Partners, advertised in this Paper for the 16th Instant, is adjourned to the 23d Day of this Instant, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Globe Tavern in the City of Exeter; when and where all the Creditors who have proved their Debts under the Commission awarded and issued against the said Bankrupts, are desired to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupts Estate and Effects, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, and defending one or more Suit or Suits at Law or in Equity; and for the compounding, submitting to Arbitration, or otherwise agreeing, any Matter in Dispute touching to the said Bankrupts Estate and Effects; and on other special Affairs.
